

CARDINAL CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.L.C.
PROXY VOTING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

As of March 31, 2019

I. Policy

Proxy voting is an important right of shareholders and reasonable care and diligence must be undertaken to ensure that such rights are properly and timely exercised. When Cardinal Capital has discretion to vote the proxies of its clients, it will vote those proxies in the best interest of its clients in accordance with these policies and procedures and in compliance with Rule 206(4)-6.

II. Proxy Voting Procedures

(a) All proxies received by Cardinal Capital will be sent to the CCO or his or her delegatee. The CCO or Compliance delegatee will:

- (1) Keep a record of each proxy received;
- (2) Forward the proxy to the appropriate investment team member with primary responsibility for company.
- (3) Determine which accounts managed by Cardinal Capital hold the security to which the proxy relates;
- (4) Provide the investment team member with a list of accounts that hold the security, together with the number of votes each account controls (reconciling any duplications), and the date by which Cardinal Capital must vote the proxy in order to allow enough time for the completed proxy to be returned to the issuer prior to the vote taking place.
- (5) Absent material conflicts (see Section IV), the investment team member will determine how Cardinal Capital should vote the proxy. The investment team member will send its decision on how Cardinal Capital will vote a proxy to the CCO or delegatee. The CCO or delegatee is responsible for completing the proxy and mailing the proxy in a timely and appropriate manner.
- (6) Cardinal Capital may retain a third party to assist it in coordinating and voting proxies with respect to client securities. If so, the CCO shall monitor the third party to assure that all proxies are being properly voted and appropriate records are being retained.

III. Voting Guidelines

Cardinal Capital believes that voting proxies in accordance with the following guidelines is in the best interests of its clients.

Generally, Cardinal Capital will vote in favor of routine corporate housekeeping proposals, including election of directors (where no corporate governance issues are implicated), selection of auditors, and increases in or reclassification of common stock.

Generally, Cardinal Capital will vote against proposals that make it more difficult to replace members of the issuer's board of directors, including proposals to stagger the board, cause management to be overrepresented on the board, introduce cumulative voting, introduce unequal voting rights, and create supermajority voting.

For other proposals, Cardinal Capital shall determine whether a proposal is in the best interests of its clients and may take into account the following factors, among others:

- (1) Whether the proposal was recommended by management and Cardinal Capital's opinion of management;
- (2) Whether the proposal acts to entrench existing management; and
- (3) Whether the proposal fairly compensates management for past and future performance.

Cardinal may receive occasional item specific voting guidelines from a client, which may result in different voting results for proxies for the same issuer.

IV. Conflicts of Interest

(1) The CCO or their delegatee will identify any conflicts that exist between the interests of Cardinal Capital and its clients. This examination will include a review of the relationship of Cardinal Capital and its affiliates with the issuer of each security [and any of the issuer's affiliates] to determine if the issuer is a client of Cardinal Capital or an affiliate of Cardinal Capital or has some other relationship with Cardinal Capital or a client of Cardinal Capital.

(2) If a material conflict exists, the Adviser will determine whether voting in accordance with the voting guidelines and factors described above is in the best interests of the client. Cardinal Capital will also determine whether it is appropriate to disclose the conflict to the affected clients and, except in the case of clients that are subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), give the clients the opportunity to vote their proxies themselves. In the case of ERISA clients, if the Investment Management Agreement reserves to the ERISA client the authority to vote proxies when Cardinal Capital determines it has a material conflict that affects its best judgment as an ERISA fiduciary, Cardinal Capital will give the ERISA client the opportunity to vote the proxies themselves, or special ERISA proxy voting procedures must provide for a pre-determined voting policy that eliminates the discretion of the Adviser when voting proxies if such a conflict exists.

V. Disclosure

(a) Cardinal Capital will disclose in its Form ADV Part II that clients may contact the Compliance Officer, via e-mail or telephone at compliance@cardcap.com in order to obtain information on how Cardinal Capital voted such client's proxies, and to request a copy of these policies and procedures. If a client requests this information, the Compliance Officer will prepare a written response to the client that lists, with respect to each voted proxy that the client has inquired about, (1) the name of the issuer; (2) the proposal voted upon and (3) how Cardinal Capital voted the client's proxy.

(b) A concise summary of these Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures will be included in Cardinal Capital's Form ADV Part II, and will be updated whenever these policies and procedures are updated. The Compliance Officer or their delegatee will arrange for a copy of this summary to be sent to all existing clients (who will already have been sent Cardinal Capital's Form ADV Part II, which is required to be offered to clients annually) either as a separate mailing or along with a periodic account statement or other correspondence sent to clients.

VI. Recordkeeping

The Compliance Officer or their delegatee will maintain files relating to Cardinal Capital's proxy voting procedures in an easily accessible place. Records will be maintained and preserved for five years from the end of the fiscal year during which the last entry was made on a record, with records for the first two years kept in the offices of Cardinal Capital. Records of the following will be included in the files:

(a) Copies of these proxy voting policies and procedures, and any amendments thereto.

(b) A copy of each proxy statement that Cardinal Capital receives, provided however that Cardinal Capital may rely on obtaining a copy of proxy statements from the SEC's EDGAR system for those proxy statements that are so available.

(c) A record of each vote that Cardinal Capital casts.

(d) A copy of any document Cardinal Capital created that was material to making a decision how to vote proxies, or that memorializes that decision.

(e) A copy of each written client request for information on how Cardinal Capital voted such client's proxies, and a copy of any written response to any (written or oral) client request for information on how Cardinal Capital voted its proxies.
